FINDINGS

Upon application for a limited driving privilege, by an applicant whose drivers license was revoked for twelve (12) months for willful refusal to submit to a chemical analysis after being charged with an implied-consent offense, the Court finds that:

- 1. At the time of the refusal, the applicant held either a valid drivers license, or a drivers license that had been expired for less than one year;
2. At the time of the refusal, the applicant had not within the preceding seven (7) years been convicted of an offense involving impaired driving;
3. At the time of the refusal, the applicant had not in the preceding seven (7) years willfully refused to submit to a chemical analysis under G.S. 20-16.2;
4. The implied-consent offense did not involve death or critical injury to another person;
5. The underlying charge for which the applicant was requested to submit to a chemical analysis was finally disposed of (a) other than by conviction or (b) by a conviction of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1 at a punishment level authorizing issuance of a limited driving privilege under G.S. 20-179.3(b), and the applicant has complied with at least one of the mandatory conditions of probation listed for the punishment level under which he/she was sentenced, or (c) by a conviction of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.2;
6. Subsequent to the refusal, the applicant has had no unresolved pending charges for, or additional convictions of, an offense involving impaired driving;
7. The applicant's drivers license has been revoked for at least six (6) months for the refusal;
8. The records of the Division of Motor Vehicles and the Clerk of Superior Court in this county have been searched, and there are no revocations in effect other than a revocation under G.S. 20-16.2 for this willful refusal, and a revocation imposed under G.S. 20-17(a)(2), for the underlying charge;
9. The defendant has obtained a substance abuse assessment and has successfully completed any recommended training or treatment program; and has filed with the Clerk a certificate of completion; (Mandatory for offenses committed on or after December 1, 1997.)
10. The defendant was convicted under G.S. 20-138.1 and had an alcohol concentration of 0.16 0.15 (use for offenses committed on or after December 1, 2007) or more; (If this item is selected, the restrictions in G.S. 20-179.3(g5) apply to the defendant. If the offense was committed on or after December 1, 2007, the defendant is also subject to the restrictions in G.S. 20-179.3(c1).)
11. a. The Court has been furnished a properly executed form DL-123 and is satisfied that the defendant is financially responsible.
b. The defendant has executed form DL-123A and is not required to furnish proof of financial responsibility.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the applicant be allowed a limited driving privilege to be effective from the date of this Order, to be used in accordance with the restrictions imposed in this form, and to expire twelve (12) months from the date on which the Division of Motor Vehicles notified the defendant that the defendant's drivers license was revoked pursuant to G.S. 20-16.2(d). The limited driving privilege is conditioned upon the maintenance of any financial responsibility required by G.S. 20-179.3(l) during the period of this privilege.
